Construction Simulator® 3

Free lite version now available on the Apple App Store and Google Play

Moenchengladbach/Germany, June 26, 2019 – GET TO WORK: With Construction Simulator® 3 Lite, astragon Entertainment and weltenbauer. SE are now offering a free trial version of their popular mobile game Construction Simulator® 3. The Lite version gives players the opportunity to earn their first spurs in the construction industry and try their hand at handling some of Construction Simulator® 3's powerful construction equipment. Available now on the Apple® App Store® and on Google Play®!

The free Construction Simulator® 3 Lite leads construction enthusiasts to the pastoral region of Illertal – a fictional European style game world. Starting in the village of “Peckling am See” players will be able to take their first steps on their long road to become the boss of the most successful construction company in the area. The lite version will let them access selected construction machines of the full version of Construction Simulator® 3 with which they can tackle their first construction jobs.

As a „try & buy“ version, Construction Simulator® 3 Lite includes the first two missions, the first two construction vehicles and one of the three city districts available in the full version of the game.

Players who have enjoyed playing Construction Simulator® 3 Lite and would like to experience the full scope of Construction Simulator® 3 will be able to upgrade their game at any time. In addition to Peckling am See, the full version of Construction Simulator® 3 offers access to the city of Neustein and the adjoining industrial district - the area of the game world with its three urban areas covers more than 10 km² in total.

Players of the full version of Construction Simulator® 3 are also able to access more than 70 challenging missions and more than 50 officially licensed construction vehicles and machines by world-famous manufacturers and brands.

Construction Simulator® 3 Lite for iPhone® and iPad® as well as smartphones and tablets using the Android™ operating system is now available for free on the Apple® App Store® and on Google Play®. Construction Simulator® 3 as well as the upgrade of Construction Simulator® 3 Lite to the full version are available for 4.99 EUR / 3.99 USD / 3.99 GBP.
